

Relationships

We understand that feeling supported and having good healthy relationships is important to every person.

Below is the support available to you.

- We promote family time (where appropriate) and in some circumstances Pathways can financially support you to travel to contact with immediate family members.
- Support and advice to help you regain or maintain contact with friends, family or previous carers.
- Advice and referrals to more specialist agencies in your local area who can help you learn about positive and healthy relationships.
- You might need someone to act on your behalf, known as an advocate. These are people who can speak for you during meetings and make sure your opinion is heard. Independent advocates are separate from children's services. If you need an independent advocate please speak to your Personal Adviser or carer.
